

Beaumont House Farm

The Erring Burn is a small but stunning tributary of the River North Tyne with alternating vegetated and open sections characterised by a mix of deep water pools and fast narrow riffles. Challenging fishing in the North Tyne valley, overlooked by Hadrian's Wall.

Angling Tips! Coming soon!

Length of fishing
Species permitted
Period available
Rules

1.8 km
Brown Trout
Brown Trout: 22nd March—30th September
Fly only. Catch and release.
No picnics or dogs.

Banks included
Max. no of anglers
Upstream limit

North only (right bank)
2
Beaumont House Farm - on post near gate into field on left by yard entrance

Downstream limit
Where to park

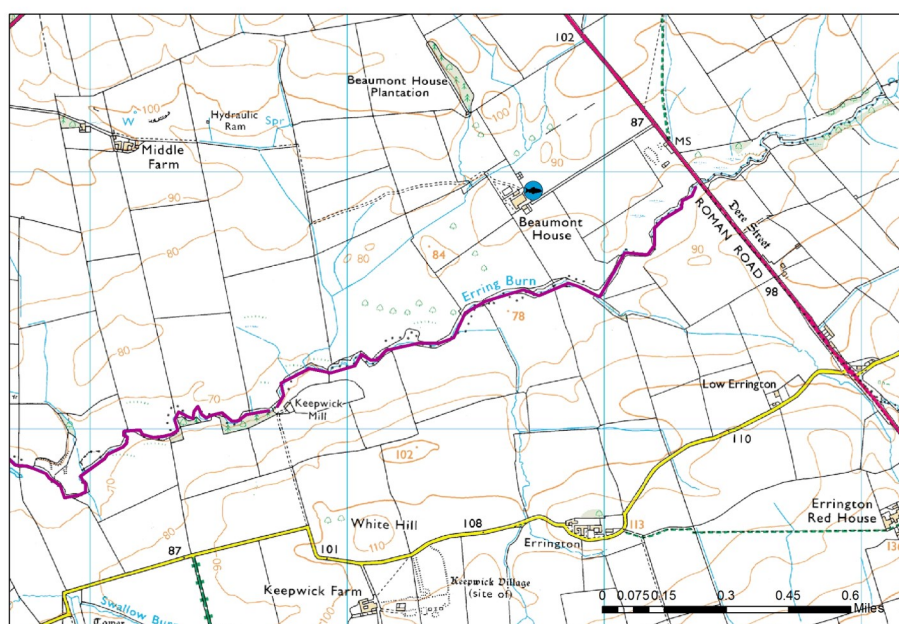

A68 Road Bridge
Beaumont House Farm Yard (access from A68) - max 2 cars

Wading difficulty
Other information

Little call for wading but beware deep holes!
Pub and burger van 3 miles south on A68

Directions:

Turn off A68 onto farm track 3.3 miles north of the A68/B6318 Roundabout or 8 miles south of Risdale. Park in farm yard and follow the fence line parallel to the A68 south to the burn.

The material contained in this plot has been reproduced from an ordnance Survey map with permission of the controller H.M.S.O. Crown Copyright Reserved Licence Number WU298506

Tyne Angling Passport
RUN BY TYNE RIVERS TRUST

To book please visit

www.tyneriverstrust.org/Tyne-Angling-Passport