

Chollerton Farm

The Erring Burn is a small but stunning tributary of the River North Tyne with alternating vegetated and open sections characterised by a mix of deep water pools and fast narrow riffles. Challenging fishing in the North Tyne valley overlooked by Hadrian's Wall.

Angling Tips! Coming soon!

Length of fishing
Species present
Period available
Rules

2.5 km
 Brown Trout
 Brown Trout: 22nd March—30th September
 Fly only. Catch and release.
 No dogs or picnics please

Banks included
Max. no of anglers
Upstream limit
Downstream limit
Where to park

North only (right bank)
 2
 Fence line opposite Keepwick Mill ruin
 Chollerton Viaduct
 Car park behind old station cottages - Chollerton Village - max 2 cars

Wading difficulty
Other information

Little call for wading but beware deep holes

Directions:

Take the left hand turn off the A6079 to Wark/Barrasford in Chollerton Village. Parking behind cottage on the left opposite church. Walk back to main road and turn left. Take the first field gate on the right and follow the field edge to the burn.

The material contained in this plot has been reproduced from an Ordnance Survey map with permission of the controller H.M.S.O. Crown Copyright Reserved Licence Number WU298506

Tyne Angling Passport
 RUN BY TYNE RIVERS TRUST

To book please visit

www.tyneriverstrust.org/Tyne-Angling-Passport